FIERCEST FOR 20 YEARS

KILAUEA IS IN VIOLENT FURY

BREAKS OUT LAST NIGHT IT IS SAID IN THE MOST VIOLENT ERUPTION EXPERIENCED IN TWENTY YEARS.

Kilauea is in the most violent eruption she has shown for twenty years. The outbreak occurred last night.

A wireless message received this forenoon made this startling announcement. President Wright, of the Wilder Steamship Company at once sent a message to the Volcano House asking for further particulars. An answer is expected at any time.

The message announcing the outbreak of the volcano was sent here from the wireless station at Mahukona, doubtless having been telephoned there from Hilo or the Volcano House itself. More detailed accounts are awaited and are momentarily expected.

In connection with the outbreak of the volcano it has been noticed by a large number of people that the "afterglows" and the "foreglows" for the past several days have been exceedingly and unusually bright. Much comment has been made on this fact.

In connection also with this outbreak the following dispatch brought by the Oregon yesterday, predicting a new eruption on Montserrat, one that will exceed all that have preceded it, is of interest.

KINGSTON, St. Vincent, B. W. I., October 31.—Henry Powell, curator of the Government botanical station here, J. G. Quinton of the British botanical station in Sierra Leone, West Africa, and E. W. Foster of the British botanical station at Lagos, West Africa, accompanied by guides, visited the Soufriere volcano on October 28, and spent an hour and a half on the summit. The party found the crater in activity. It was emitting volumes of steam and throwing up numerous cones of ashes from the fissures close under the southern wall to a height of forty feet.

From the general appearance of the volcano an eruption of a serious nature can be expected. The administrator of St. Vincent visited the Georgetown district October 26. He has advised the Governor of the Windward Islands Sir Robert Llewellyn that it is advisable permanently to locate the people of the disturbed part of the island at North Union, which is at a considerable distance from the volcano.

The following message from Manager Waldron was received by R. H. Trent this forenoon.

"Fire Geyser forming in lake six hundred feet in diameter in Halemauau. A steamer may be chartered to make special trip to Hilo to take Volcano passengers."

HUNDRED WORDS EACH MINUTE BY BRITISH CABLE

VANCOUVER, October 31.—The actual time occupied in the transmission of a message from this city to Sydney, Australia, will be less than five minutes in the case of a short commercial message and this time will, of course, be mainly occupied in the repetition of the message at Bamfield Creek, Fanning Island, Norfolk Island and Brisbane. The section between Bamfield Creek and Fanning Island which is the longest in the world, has already undergone a series of tests and proved entirely equal to expectations. The great question in the success of the cable was over this enormous stretch, but it was found by a recent test to give a speed of over one hundred words a minute with the Deslove transmitter.

WHEN LITTLE JOE IS HOME NO MORE

HIS MOTHER ALMOST SHED TEARS AT THE MERE DESCRIPTION OF THAT DREADED TIME.

"When he isn't around to bother you, and to make a noise, and to do things for which you scold him; when you don't have any more of his shirts to wash, or his little trousers and coats to mend, when in fact you don't have any of the things to worry about that make you feel as you do now; that make you want to send the boy to the Reform school for seven years, you'll be coming around here with a handkerchief in your hand and big tears in your eyes, and wanting me to get your boy out."

Joe's mother almost shed tears at the mere description of the dreary, quiet, noiseless, calm, melancholy time she would have when Joe really was in the Reform school, and wasn't living at home and playing truant from school. But her pride wouldn't allow her to withdraw her request that Joe be sent up for seven years or the remainder of his minority.

Joe himself shed bigger tears than before, and sobbed more violently than he had, as Judge Wilcox described the lonesome state his mother would be in when he was in the Reform school.

But the record showed that Joe Kaaha had already been brought before the court three times for truancy, and on the present occasion for seven days in succession his mother had seen that he combed his hair, and that his clothes were clean, and had started him off to school, whither Joe failed to go.

"You did take a pretty long vacation, Joe, didn't you?" said the Court, in concluding a discussion with the High Sheriff in which it was agreed between them that three years ought to prove a long enough sentence for Joe.

ALMOST CAUSED A SERIOUS FRAY

COLON (Colombia), Oct. 31.—Last Wednesday a serious fracas was narrowly averted at the railroad station in Panama between American marines on guard there and government officials and troops. The Colombians tried to remove from the station six wagon loads of ammunition which had come in from Colon, but the marines prevented them from doing so. The ammunition was subsequently delivered to the government.

A detachment of 1,300 Government troops, commanded by General Lucio Velasco, arrived here today from Savanilla, in the Department of Bolivar, on board a steamer. The steamer also brought a telegram which had been censored by the Governor of Bolivar, from General Uribe-Urbe to his wife at Bogota. This message was dated Rio Crio, October 28th, and said the writer was safe and about to sign a treaty of peace, to include the entire departments of Bolivar and Magdalena. General Uribe-Urbe said he expected to reach Bogota shortly.

The news of Uribe-Urbe's surrender is well calculated to dampen the spirits of the revolutionists. The arrival of 1,300 government troops this morning, the first installment of the reinforcements destined for the isthmus, is also another great setback to rebel hopes.

It is understood that Admiral Casey now authorizes the transportation of the railroad of Colombian troops and ammunition across the isthmus.

WASHINGTON, October 31.—Rear Admiral Casey sent to the Navy Department today a dispatch which gives information asked by the State Department and is therefore of a diplomatic character.

It has been stated here by agents of the Colombian Government that Admiral Casey violated the law of nations by boarding the new Colombian cruiser Bogota and by depriving the Colombians on the isthmus of the privilege of transporting their own troops over the Panama Railway.

JAPANESE SAVED FROM FLAMES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Forty-five Japanese, powerless to escape from a burning steamer, were rescued from a terrible fate by the transport Crook on her outward voyage from this port. News of the rescue reached here yesterday on the transport Sheridan.

The Crook left here on September 16th, bound for Manila. On October 10th, when off Van Dieman Straits in lat. 31 d-g 30 min. north, long. 132 deg. 30 min. east, the officers of the Crook sighted a steamer flying distress signals.

The vessel proved to be the Japanese collier Yoshima Maru and was on fire. The Crook altered her course and headed for the burning vessel. When she arrived within hailing distance, the flames were beyond the control of the crew and were coming from the hatchways. The Japanese were hanging over the sides of the vessel, being unable to stand the heat on deck. All were rescued by the crew of the Crook and were taken to Nagasaki. The Japanese stated that at the first sign of fire the Chinese members of the crew launched the boats and left the Japanese to fight the fire unassisted.

The timely arrival of the Crook saved the Japanese from certain death. The Yoshima Maru burned to the water's edge and then disappeared from sight. She was a vessel of 1,500 tons register and was bound from Hongkong for Japanese ports.

SUSPICIOUS DEATH GRAND JURY PROBING

The dead body of a Japanese woman was found today upstairs in a building on Pauahi street near Maunakea. She was last seen leaving in the company of a Chinaman, drinking and carousing. She is supposed to have died last night sometime. Her sudden death when she was so recently in good health, the company she was last seen in and other attending circumstances led to suspicion of foul play. Her body was taken to the Board of Health morgue, and a post mortem examination will be held. The contents of her stomach were sent to Dr. Shorey for chemical analysis to see if there was any poison. A coroner's jury has been impaneled.

Colonel Bryan finds so much to grumble about from week to week that we suspect his advice is being pretty generally neglected.—Philadelphia Press.

A VIOLENT ATTACK OF CROUP CURED.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Milley, Mo., U. S. A. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." "This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists, Benson Smith & Co., general agents."

NO SHOOTING ON HERMAN

HEAVY TRAFFIC TO SAN FRANCISCO AND COAST POINTS

CHICAGO, October 31.—Travel to the Pacific Coast, principally California, this fall, has been exceptionally heavy, owing in part at least to the cheap rates which have been in effect during the past two months and which expire tonight. Yesterday and today fifty-four tourist sleeping cars with every berth taken, left Chicago via the connections of the Southern Pacific. This morning no berths were available. There were at least 250 applications for space in the tourist cars and many of the passengers had to go in the ordinary coaches or reserving chair cars as the Pullman company was unable to furnish tourist sleepers. Railroad men anticipate this winter the heaviest passenger traffic to the coast ever known.

BOYD WANTS HIS POSITION BACK

HAS SECURED A WRIT OF MANDAMUS DIRECTING SECRETARY COOPER TO APPEAR IN COURT.

James H. Boyd today began the expected suit against Henry E. Cooper to regain possession of the office of Superintendent of Public Works. He secured from Judge Gear an alternative writ of mandamus, directing Cooper to appear in court on the 18th of this month, and show cause why a peremptory writ should not be issued to compel him to turn the office over to Boyd. The suit is in some respects similar to that filed by Auditor Austin against Attorney General Dole and High Sheriff Brown, but differs in important particulars.

James Boyd's petition for a writ sets forth that he was the duly appointed and qualified superintendent of Public Works of the Territory of Hawaii, and had not been removed lawfully from such office, having been appointed by Governor Dole and duly confirmed by the senate of the Territory of Hawaii. Henry E. Cooper it is alleged, acting without any legal authority, has taken charge of the office and taken possession of the books and accounts, and he refused to allow Boyd to enter the office or to take the books. On this showing Gear issued the alternative writ.

The senate meets in special session two days after the case comes up before Judge Gear, so that Boyd will be probably removed "by and with the consent of the senate," before there is a decision of the matter. The same applies to the case of H. C. Austin against E. P. Dole et al. The real question involved therefore is the right of the ousted officials to receive their salaries during the time of their suspension. Boyd's salary is held up by the acting auditor on the ground that he has not faithfully performed the services required of him.

With both the officials the contest now is really for the two or three months salary, as hope of getting an office back has practically disappeared since the election and the calling of a special session of the senate.

VESSEL ARRIVES SAFELY AT APIA

HOFFMAN WAS NOT MAROONED AS CAPTAIN THREATENED—PARTY STILL SEEKING MYSTERIOUS TREASURE.

The treasure-seeking schooner Herman has arrived at Apia safe and sound with F. Hoffmann and Sharatt on board, that whatever troubles Hoffmann may have had with Captain Brown on the way down, the latter has either relented or thought better of his proposed scheme of marooning Hoffmann on some desert atoll of the South Pacific.

The schooner, according to a letter received by Southard Hoffmann from his brother in the Ventura's mail, experienced rough weather, but as Hoffmann was not a good sailor the expression may be discounted. In those latitudes at this time of year the winds would be either very light trades or stormy weather. The little schooner which was built for the sealing trade and is as heavily timbered as if it was a three-hundred-ton boat, has made several trips to Nome and is one of the most seaworthy craft on the Pacific.

While the schooner lay at Apia, Chetwood, one of the treasure-seeking but who went back to the coast from Honolulu dissatisfied at the turn affairs had taken and resolved on making arrangements in San Francisco whereby the power of attorney might be given to some individual qualified to straighten matters out, touched at Pago Pago with Stoney, a Californian attorney, in his company. They left a letter for the schooner stating that they had gone on to Auckland to settle everything up, not knowing that the Herman was lying only sixty miles away.

As soon as the Herman got the letter they cabled to Auckland asking Stoney to return and meet them at Apia and at the latter port the schooner and her owners still lies awaiting Stoney and Chetwood on the next steamer.

Stoney carries full power of attorney from other members interested in the enterprise and an endeavor will be made to arrange things to the satisfaction of everybody.

The honesty of Captain Brown is not doubted, and it is thought that the arrangement will leave Brown with hands free to sail to the island and bring back the treasure. The stumbling block to be removed is the absolute refusal of Brown to take Hoffmann to the island with him and Hoffmann's determination not to lose sight of Brown. If all is arranged Brown will winter with the schooner in Sydney and start for the island early in the spring, as it is said to be impossible to attempt to make the island during the winter months.

There is a rumor of trouble between passengers and capitalists on the way down, but there was no shooting and every one was well when the Ventura left Samoa.
